The TV personality and supermodel — who is also due to give birth in the near future — is taking over the brand's social and digital channels for the next 12 months, with the campaign being described as a “celebration of beauty”. The cosmetic brand is best known for its bronzer and lipstick ranges, but has also unveiled a range of blushes and eye shadows recently. KIM Kardashian West will be replacing Estée Lauder's Helen Qiu, who has held the position for 20 years. Kardashian West — the sister of US reality TV star Kim Kardashian — first appeared on the scene when she fronted Kanye West's Yeezus music video in 2013. She has since been a keen supporter of boyfriend Kanye West and his music as well as his friend Donald Trump. This year saw the pair's baby daughter, Chicago, born. Kardashian West, who has released her own perfume called KKW Beauty, also brought the Kardashian name into the spotlight when she cut off her dyed hair to raise money for homeless children. MAC cosmetic ambassador Kim Kardashian West, fronting MAC's new video ad 'Come out, come out'. The video ad shows men, women and children across the world coming out of hiding, saying “I can't believe I'm finally standing up for
