Jacob Edward O'Neill, 19, was arrested on suspicion of assault with a deadly weapon, attempted robbery and other felonies after he allegedly used a gun to rob the Tustin bank on Dec. 15. O'Neill was driving in a car that was filled with clothes and jewelry when he robbed the bank at 25900 Pico Blvd. About a half hour later, the 18-year-old injured a Tustin County Sheriff's deputy who was chasing him on a road near Tustin Lake Park. The deputy was hit by a bullet in the upper left leg and was airlifted to a hospital, according to the Orange County Sheriff's Department. He was expected to make a full recovery, authorities said. The robber got away in a different vehicle, OCSD officials said. O'Neill was arrested Monday at his home in Orange, police said. The investigation led investigators to Santa Ana, where they determined O'Neill was connected to the robbery, according to the Sheriff's Department. While looking for O'Neill, detectives learned that he was known to wear a bulletproof vest, and that he had a "significant amount" of jewelry and cash in his car, said OCSD spokeswoman Nicole Nishida. They also found that O'Neill was known to sell his jewelry and sell drugs. On Tuesday, a warrant was issued for O'Neill's arrest in the Wells Fargo robbery and he was booked into the Orange County Jail, Nishida said. He was being held on $1.2 million bail. The mother of the teen suspect said she was relieved that he had been arrested f3e1b3768c
